Testimonial of October 2021

"Hello AAA-K! I am one of the trainees from Kenya. Today's session impacted me a lot, as I am a person with disabilities, which makes it difficult to handle stress, so I find that I had conflict within myself, because I was seeing that people around me were not helping at all. BUT with today's training... to know how to deal with issues and manage conflict within me, thanks for this initiative!"

Participants will be required to register, attend all five days from 8am - 12.30pm - Monday to Friday. Each participant will have access to professional trainers and skills and competencies to:

- What is Conflict?
- Mental Health & Psychosocial Support - MHPSS
- Understanding Dynamics of Conflict
- Dialogue for Peace Building
- Mediation as a tool to build peace & dialogue

AAA Kenya in Partnership with GIZ CPS SIF Kenya has launched 5 day on-line trainings on 'Peace Building and Dialogue' for the displaced people and host community 'Youth'. These on-line trainings are designed to meet the global Covid-19 protocols. The main objective is to provide skills and competencies to the vulnerable youth to change their behavior and attitude towards conflict, understanding the importance of mental health and strategies to adopt in managing conflict and transforming the situations into peaceful solutions.

Why Peace Building and Dialogue?

September 23 2020 with support from GIZ CPS SIF Kenya and UNHCR – AAA K started its journey to provide 5 days on-line training to 30 participants from Kakuma, Dadaab and Urban Kenya. Today AAA K has completed training 90 'Youth' with a total of 90 more to undergo our 'Peace Building and Dialogue' trainings. These trainings are delivered by facilitator's who have the experience and expertise in dealing with children, women, men, mental health and techniques to coping with psychological and clinical psychological cases, strategies to convert conflict into peaceful solutions through dialogue and mediation.

In 2021 AAA Kenya will have provided initial trainings to 180 participants with the aim of providing advanced level trainings to create a strong group of 'Peace Champions'.
